

Donald Charles Brown

Donald Brown was born on November 16, 1952 in Chickasha, Oklahoma to Dock and Marie Brown. He graduated from Chickasha High School in 1970. After High School, Dr. Brown continued his academic studies at the University of Oklahoma finishing at the University Of Oklahoma College Of Medicine. After graduating from the University of Oklahoma college of Medicine, Dr. Brown completed an internship at the OU Department of Family Medicine and a fellowship in operative obstetrics. He finished his residency at Letterman Army Medical Center in San Francisco, where he served as chief resident. Dr. Brown is a board Certified OB/GYN and has practiced medicine in Oklahoma for over 20 years.

Dr. Brown has received many awards for his participation in community service programs. He was an assistant professor of the OB/GYN residency program at the University of Oklahoma college of Medicine and is currently a clinical instructor of OB/GYN at the Great Plains Family Medicine Residency.

When Dr. Brown isn't busy caring for patients, he enjoys volunteering at King's Clinic. He also participates in athletics and is an avid reader.

Dr. Brown was inducted into the Chickasha High School hall of Fame in 2004.